BILL SEARS has been Director of Jazz Studies and Instructor of Saxophone at Interlochen Arts Academy since 1987 and at Interlochen Arts Camp since 2010. Honors for the jazz ensemble and combo at Interlochen include two appearances in the finals of the Essentially Ellington Competition at Lincoln Center, a finalist at the Next Generation Jazz Festival, and many Downbeat Student Awards. Prior to Interlochen, Sears lived in Chicago where he led an active performing and teaching career. From 1977-2009 he was a faculty member of the Shell Lake (Wisconsin) Arts Center Jazz Camp. Sears has performed, toured and recorded with many leading musicians including Ray Charles, Dizzy Gillespie, Joe Williams and Nancy Wilson. He has two CD's under his own leadership, Chasin' the Goal and With One Accord. He is a contracted saxophonist with the Grand Rapids and Traverse Symphony Orchestras, and has played for countless popular artists including Natalie Cole, Aretha Franklin, The Temptations and Tony Bennett.
