APPENDIX C: STATEMENT OF RIGHTS OF THE PARTIES

- The right to an equitable investigation and resolution of all credible allegations of prohibited harassment or retaliation made in good faith to ICA officials.

- The right to timely written notice of all alleged violations, including the identity of the parties involved (if known), the precise misconduct being alleged, the date and location of the alleged misconduct (if known), the implicated policies and procedures, and possible sanctions.

- The right to timely written notice of any material adjustments to the allegations (e.g., additional incidents or allegations, additional Complainants, unsubstantiated allegations) and any attendant adjustments needed to clarify potentially implicated policy violations.

- The right to be informed in advance of any public release of information regarding the allegation(s) or underlying incident(s), whenever possible.

- The right not to have any personally identifiable information released to the public without consent provided, except to the extent permitted by law.

- The right to be treated with respect by ICA officials.

- The right to have ICA policies and procedures followed without material deviation.

- The right not to be pressured to mediate or otherwise informally resolve any reported misconduct involving violence, including sexual violence.

- The right not to be discouraged by ICA officials from reporting sexual harassment or retaliation to both school and local authorities.

- The right to be informed by ICA officials of options to notify proper law enforcement authorities, including in-school and local police, and the option(s) to be assisted by ICA officials in notifying such authorities, if the party so chooses. This also includes the right not to report, as well, except when ICA officials are required to report by law.

- The right to have allegations of violations of this Policy responded to promptly and with sensitivity by ICA officials.

- The right to be informed of available interim actions and supportive measures, such as counseling; advocacy; health care; visa assistance; or other services, both in school and in the community.

- The right to an ICA-implemented no-contact order when a person has engaged in or threatens to engage in stalking, threatening, harassing, or other improper conduct.
The right to be informed of available assistance in changing academic, living, and/or working situations after an alleged incident of sexual harassment and/or retaliation, if such changes are reasonably available. No formal report, or investigation, either school or criminal, needs to occur before this option is available. Such actions may include, but are not limited to:

- Relocating a student’s housing to a different location
- Changing an employee’s work environment (e.g., reporting structure, office/workspace relocation)
- Transportation accommodations
- Visa/immigration assistance
- Exam, paper, and/or assignment rescheduling or adjustment
- Transferring class sections
- Temporary leave of absence
- School safety escorts
- Alternative course completion options.

The right to have ICA maintain such actions for as long as necessary and for supportive measures to remain private, provided privacy does not impair ICA’s ability to provide the supportive measures.

The right to receive sufficiently advanced, written notice of any meeting or interview involving the other party, when possible.

The right to ask the Investigator(s) and Decision-maker(s) to identify and question relevant witnesses, including expert witnesses.

The right to provide the Investigator(s)/Decision-maker(s) with a list of questions that, if deemed relevant by the Investigator(s)/Chair, may be asked of any party or witness.

The right to have inadmissible prior sexual history or irrelevant character evidence excluded by the decision-maker.

The right to know the relevant and directly related evidence obtained and to respond to that evidence.

The right to a fair opportunity to provide the Investigator(s) with their account of the alleged misconduct.

The right to receive a copy of the investigation report, including all factual, policy, and/or credibility analyses performed, and all relevant and directly related evidence available and used to produce the investigation report, subject to the privacy limitations imposed by state and federal law and the right to have at least ten (10) business days to review the report prior to any determination being made.

The right to respond to the investigation report, including comments providing any additional relevant evidence after the opportunity to review the investigation report.
● The right to be informed of the names of all witnesses whose information will be used to make a finding, in advance of that finding, when relevant.

● The right to regular updates on the status of the investigation and/or resolution.

● The right to have reports of alleged Policy violations addressed by Investigators, Title IX Coordinators, and Decision-maker(s) who have received relevant annual training.

● The right to preservation of privacy, to the extent possible and permitted by law.

● The right to meetings, interviews, and/or hearings that are closed to the public.

● The right to petition that any ICA representative in the process be recused on the basis of disqualifying bias and/or conflict of interest.

● The right to have an Advisor of their choice to accompany and assist the party in all meetings, interviews and/or hearings associated with the resolution process.

● The right to the use of the appropriate standard of evidence, preponderance of the evidence; to make a finding after an objective evaluation of all relevant evidence.

● The right to have an impact statement considered by the Decision-maker(s) following a determination of responsibility for any allegation, but prior to sanctioning.

● The right to be promptly informed in a written Notice of Outcome letter of the finding(s) and sanction(s) of the resolution process and a detailed rationale of the decision (including an explanation of how credibility was assessed), delivered simultaneously (without undue delay) to the parties.

● The right to be informed in writing of when a decision by ICA is considered final and any changes to the sanction(s) that occur before the decision is finalized.

● The right to be informed of the opportunity to appeal the finding(s) and sanction(s) of the resolution process, and the procedures for doing so in accordance with the standards for appeal established by ICA.

● The right to a fundamentally fair resolution as defined in these procedures.
