Dear Friends and Supporters,

Thank you for all of your support this past year—a year in which we publicly launched CREATE AMAZING: The Campaign for Interlochen.

Interlochen is working toward raising $100 million in the most ambitious comprehensive fundraising campaign in our history. Through this goal, we can create amazing people, place, programs and opportunities and prepare Interlochen for its second century as a beacon of arts and culture and leader in arts education.

This Campaign has already had a tremendous impact on campus. We plan to break ground on the new Music Building in 2017 and will soon begin dramatically renovating and expanding our dance facilities. The Dennison Center for Recreation and Wellness will open this fall, and scholarship aid has increased significantly—including 24 new endowed scholarships. Thank you for your support.

Beyond this Campaign, you helped create yet another amazing year at Interlochen. We kicked off an exciting partnership with the New York Philharmonic with a critically acclaimed performance by our Academy Orchestra and Dance Company at the 2016 NY Phil Biennial. Creative Writing celebrated its 40th anniversary and Motion Picture Arts its 10th. Interlochen also began featuring faculty in an in-town recital series from Kirkbride Hall at the Grand Traverse Commons.

In addition, Interlochen Presents and our Camp season featured over 400 summer presentations by faculty, staff and guest artists. Interlochen Public Radio produced new original programming, and Interlochen College of Creative Arts expanded its year-round programming. Our 80 webcasts, videos, online links and social media contacts are reaching millions across the country and around the globe.

I look forward to another year of watching students and artists from across the globe come together to learn and create at a level that never ceases to amaze me.

On behalf of Interlochen trustees and staff, please enjoy seeing all that your support accomplished as you look through this annual report for fiscal year 2016 (June 1, 2015 - May 31, 2016).

Thank you for helping us give everyone a place to unite through the power of the arts.

With deep thanks and appreciation,

Jeffrey S. Kimpton
President
We invite you to join us in giving everyone a place to unite through the power of the arts.

In summer 2012, the Interlochen Center for the Arts Board of Trustees authorized a comprehensive fundraising campaign to ensure the ongoing strength and vitality of Interlochen. After a four-year “quiet phase,” securing gifts from loyal supporters, we have publicly launched CREATE AMAZING: The Campaign for Interlochen on July 23, 2016.

CREATE AMAZING: The Campaign for Interlochen strives to raise $100 million to prepare Interlochen for its second century. Further investment in this vibrant arts institution will allow us to:

• Increase scholarship support for aspiring artists
• Create bold new programs that pave the way for the future of the arts
• Complete the revitalization of our campus, including a centralized Music Building, expanded and renovated dance facilities, and improved and accessible waterfront
• Broadcast and distribute important news, riveting music and original programming to communities across northern Michigan and the world

Invest in the future of the arts and create amazing people, place, programs and opportunity.

Contact us at 231.276.7623 or advancement@interlochen.org or visit createamazing.org for more information or to make a pledge or a gift.
CREATE AMAZING PEOPLE
Give Interlochen students the opportunity to flourish. Help them discover, often for the first time in their lives, a community of like-minded individuals who share their artistic passion. Introduce them to teachers who unlock their potential to create at the highest level.

CREATE AMAZING PLACE
Complete the nearly two-decade revitalization of Interlochen’s campus, and prepare this special place for its second century. Create worthy homes for Music and Dance at Interlochen. Create new and improved facilities for student recreation and wellness. Create an improved, more inviting and accessible lakefront for all campus visitors to enjoy.

CREATE AMAZING PROGRAMS
Enrich the Interlochen experience with programs that help students realize their artistic dreams. Secure the legacy of the World Youth Symphony Orchestra and help aspiring orchestral musicians begin to explore opportunities beyond their hometowns. Support guest artists in all disciplines who teach students how to express their unique experiences. Help Interlochen Public Radio share the Interlochen experience with the world.

CREATE AMAZING OPPORTUNITY
Support all aspects of Interlochen. Increase scholarship support for talented, motivated students. Allow Interlochen to meet critical needs and pursue extraordinary new opportunities like the Arts Academy Orchestra and Dance Company’s critically acclaimed performance at the 2016 NY Phil Biennial. Support the Interlochen Annual Fund and/or include Interlochen in your estate plans.
Interlochen Board of Trustees, Campaign Cabinet, leadership donors and Camp students kick off CREATE AMAZING on July 23, 2016.

Interlochen Arts Camp

High School Musical Theatre, Catch Me If You Can
Your support helped create an extraordinary summer for 2,545 summer Arts Camp students from 48 countries and 52 U.S. states and territories. These students trained intensively with world-class instructors and produced nearly 400 presentations in creative writing, dance, motion picture arts, music, theatre and visual arts.

The four countries with the most campers in attendance outside of the United States
- China: 36
- Hong Kong: 29
- Canada: 20
- United Kingdom: 14

The six states with the most campers in attendance
- Michigan: 295
- Illinois: 249
- California: 232
- New York: 192
- Texas: 152
- Ohio: 137

During our 89th Arts Camp season, students made friends with kindred spirits and met outstanding faculty and guests artists who nurtured their talent and drive. Among the many highlights:

- Students participated in master classes with The King’s Singers, Janet Leahy (Executive Producer, “Mad Men”) and actress Emily Koch.
- The High School Musical Theatre Company performed Catch Me If You Can.
• World Youth Symphony Orchestra musicians worked with five professional American orchestra concertmasters through an expanded Valade Fellows program; the Valade Concertmasters collaborated with conductors and coached students in preparation for performances, including Maurice Ravel’s Piano Concerto in G Major with pianist Conrad Tao and conductor Carlos Kalmar.

• Festival Choir (Interlochen’s only faculty, staff, student and community member ensemble) and Interlochen Philharmonic performed excerpts from Felix Mendelssohn’s Elijah with four soloists and conductor Joseph Flummerfelt.
All these composers share a familiarity and ease with the orchestra and a flair for instrumentation. They put the young players through their paces, and the Interlochen students responded brilliantly to Mr. Rountree’s lead.

(Review of Interlochen Arts Academy students performing at the 2016 NY Phil Biennial)
Your support helped Interlochen Arts Academy welcome a record number of students for the 2015-16 school year: 510 from 49 U.S. states and territories and 37 countries. Comparative artists, creative writers, dancers, motion picture artists, musicians, theatre artists and visual artists came together to work across disciplines and celebrate the “year of light.”

Students shined at the 2016 NY Phil Biennial, when the Arts Academy Orchestra and Dance Company performed to critically acclaimed reviews at Lincoln Center’s David Geffen Hall. Interlochen was the only high school invited to perform. Thanks to Trustee Emerita Shirley Young and over 300 other Interlochen supporters for helping make this tour possible.

Creative Writing celebrated 40 years when creative writing alumni, students and faculty came together for a special evening of poetry, fiction and nonfiction. Featured readers included alumni Kate Angus, Gary Barwin, Teresa Scollon, Holly Wren Spaulding and Doug Stanton.

2015-16 visual artists painted a mini Mackinac Bridge
Motion Picture Arts celebrated 10 years at Interlochen with alumni and guest artists during a retrospective Future of Cinema Film Festival. Guests included Rich Delia, Julio Macat and Michael Scheffe and alumni Chad Engel, Todd Mueller, Kira Bursky and Ali Scattergood. During the festival, students learned soundstage tricks from Julio Macat and practiced life cast and mask making from makeup effects artist Chad Engel. (Photo page 11)

Comparative artists explored the connections between Detroit and Rio, working across academic and artistic disciplines on campus and through field trips to Detroit. Students examined the roles of history, civil rights, diversity, economy, industrialization, urban planning, ecology and sustainability on artistic expression in the two seemingly different cities. Guest artists included Grammy and Oscar award winner Luis Resto (IAC 77, AS 76), visual artist Susan Byrnes and dancer Katie Piselli.

Visual artists painted a mini Mackinac Bridge mural for the Great Lakes Children’s Museum’s Building Bridges exhibition. This partnership is just one example of visual artists working in the community. Next year, they will partner with Munson Medical Center’s Cowell Family Cancer Center, in Traverse City, Mich.

Theatre students delighted in RENT when they brought a riveting performance to Corson Auditorium, accompanied with an onstage band of music majors. Several theatre majors also volunteered at the Grand Traverse Commons’ local retirement home—teaching songs from classic musicals.

Holly Gilbert (IAA 86-88), Deputy Director of the Heliophysics Science Division at NASA’s Goddard Space Flight Center in Greenbelt, Md. spoke to physics students about how NASA determines the nature of prominence support, formation and evolution and how this relates to solar coronal mass ejections. She also gave the keynote address at the annual meeting of the Michigan Section of the American Association of Physics Teachers (MIAPPT). Interlochen is the first high school to host the MIAPPT.
Your gift has given me so much more than a school; it's given me a lifetime of art, emotion and creativity. When I say 'thank you', I mean so much more than just words. There's no way—in this or any language—to express the gratitude I feel. You've changed the course of my entire life for the better.

— Isabel, Creative Writing, Camp & Academy, Age 16, Lake Orion, Mich.
This year, Interlochen College of Creative Arts (ICCA) designed programs to meet a variety of skill levels, address a wider range of interests, increase accessibility to programs and increase opportunities for adults to pursue creative endeavors.

ICCA welcomed a record number of adult learners through year-round programming that featured rigid heddle weaving, introduction to digital audio, mystery writing, beginning mandolin, basic vocal techniques and much more.

One particular highlight included a new online continuing education program for adults in flash fiction. The program welcomed several new students from across the country. ICCA plans to add additional online programs unique to Interlochen in 2017, including in the winter months, when weather hinders access to campus.
This year, Interlochen Presents celebrated the future of arts in America. Among the many highlights, performers included Chris Thile and Béla Fleck, Sarah Jarosz, Brandi Carlile and Old Crow Medicine Show, Danez Smith and Kris Bowers.

Throughout the year, artists also worked with students, including:

- Glenn Miller Jazz Orchestra
- Chamber ensemble Sybarite5
- Cellist Zuill Bailey
- Author Alexandra Kleeman
- Dancer and choreographer Kyle Abraham

In addition, Interlochen screened Rich Hill. And for the first time, the Interlochen Shakespeare Festival expanded to present contemporary theatre. Written by the Pulitzer Prize-winning young American playwright Annie Baker, Circle Mirror Transformation gave audiences a glimpse into the cathartic process of theatre.

“Ultimately, this is a thoughtful, beautifully conceived production that, rather than adapt or otherwise play with the classic text, emphasizes and brings to life its major themes with smart choices, terrific talent, and the magic and elegance of the natural world.”

— Critic Marin Heinritz, Encore Michigan, on Interlochen Shakespeare Festival’s “Romeo and Juliet,” directed by William Church
Thanks to your support, Interlochen Public Radio celebrated another year of bringing the world to northern Michigan and Interlochen and northern Michigan to the world.

There were many highlights throughout the year, including new original programming like We’ve Got Issues. Led by IPR Morning Edition host David Cassleman, this limited series gave IPR News’ listeners the opportunity to speak directly with Republican and Democratic candidates for northern Michigan’s congressional seat.

Two IPR reporters also received Public Radio News Directors Inc. awards. Morgan Springer won first place in the “Soft Feature” category for her story “Behind bars, transformation through poetry,” which told the story of prisoners who find solace and community in a poetry writing workshop. Arts and Culture reporter Daniel Wanschura won second place in the “Arts Feature” category for “Opera: relevant or outdated?” a look at the debate over the current state of opera.

And thanks to generous IPR supporters, IPR is building a new radio tower in Emmet County to bring more news, classical music and Interlochen programming to the northern Michigan community.
THANK YOU! Your support helped create amazing this year at Interlochen.

Thank you for investing in the Interlochen Annual Fund and inspiring the next generation of artists, performers and creative leaders.
Your Support Every Year Creates Amazing Moments Every Day. THANK YOU!

Interlochen’s giving clubs recognize those generous alumni, parents, friends, faculty, staff and volunteers who demonstrate strong commitment to Interlochen and the arts with annual gifts of $1,000 or more, or by remembering Interlochen in their wills.

Thank you for making a difference in the lives of our students, patrons and radio listeners. Your leadership support ensures Interlochen’s long-term stability and encourages excellence in education, performance and broadcasting.

The following pages list supporters who have contributed $1,000 or more in the past year. We are also grateful to those anonymous supporters who have given to Interlochen. We would appreciate the opportunity to correct any errors or omissions, or to make changes to how your name is listed. Please contact the advancement office at 231.276.7623 or advancement@interlochen.org.

Thank you for making my dream come true. I can’t imagine my life without this magical place, and I can’t thank you enough for providing me the opportunity to attend this incomparable academy for my third year.

—Yonatan, Age 17, Theatre, Camp & Academy, Huntington Woods, Mich.

Your Support Every Year Creates Amazing Moments Every Day. THANK YOU!

... my experience at the Academy didn’t only shape me into the writer I am today. It was a holistic experience, an education that not only nurtured the little talent I brought with me from Ghana, but went even further to mold me into the adult I would become.

HOW OUR VOLUNTEERS CREATE AMAZING EVERY DAY!

Our volunteers make Interlochen a better place. They are highly valued members of our community, as they give their time and talent to usher concerts, sew costumes, plant flowers, build sets and serve meals. This fiscal year, 562 volunteers selflessly donated a total of 12,986 hours. This year, Linnie Cross was honored as Volunteer of the Year, for her 454 hours of dedicated service. In addition, 26 other volunteers were recognized for their 20 or more years of service.
THANK YOU to our volunteers!

SUPPORTING INTERLOCHEN THROUGH A PLANNED GIFT

You too have the opportunity to transform our students’ lives and support our work in education, public broadcasting and presentations. Through planned giving, you can find the charitable gift plan that best fits your goals for your family, finances, and philanthropy.

Bequests. The simplest way to make a planned gift is to name Interlochen Center for the Arts in your will. You can make a bequest of a certain dollar amount, a particular piece of property, a percentage of your estate, or a “residual” gift (a gift from what is leftover after making specific provisions for your loved ones).

Gifts From Life Insurance or Retirement Plans. Another option is to name Interlochen Center for the Arts as a beneficiary of your life insurance or retirement plan. When the original purpose for such plans no longer applies – such as to educate children who are now grown or to provide financial security for a spouse – these assets can be redirected to help support a cause you value.

Gifts That Pay You Income. If you’d like to support our mission and receive steady payments during your retirement years, a charitable gift annuity or a charitable remainder trust may be right for you.

If you would like to have a confidential conversation about supporting Interlochen Center for the Arts with a planned gift, or if you have already included Interlochen in your estate plans, but are not yet a recognized member of the Heritage Society, please contact the Director of Planned Giving Kathleen Kasdorf at 231.276.7637 or kathleen.kasdorf@interlochen.org.
