Described by the New York Times as a conductor who "radiates enthusiasm" and the Los Angeles Times as "a real grabber", Jung-Ho Pak is known for his unique approach and vision of symphonic music. Since 2007 he has been Artistic Director and Conductor of the Cape Symphony in Massachusetts, one of the largest orchestras in the New England region. Pak is also Artistic Director of the Bay Symphony (San Francisco), and Calliope, a theatrical music ensemble. Previously, he has been Artistic Director of Orchestra Nova, the New Haven Symphony Orchestra, and the San Diego Symphony, which Pak guided from bankruptcy to financial success. As a nationally recognized educator, he served as Music Director with the University of Southern California (USC), San Francisco Conservatory of Music, U.C. Berkeley, Disney Young Musicians Symphony, the Debut Orchestra (L.A.), Colburn Chamber Orchestra, and Diablo Ballet, as well as Director of Orchestras and Music Director of the World Youth Symphony Orchestra at Interlochen Center for the Arts. Guest conducting has taken him to Europe, Russia, South America, and Asia. Pak is also a frequent speaker on television and radio including TED Talks and National Public Radio, as well as a clinician and conductor at national music festivals.

UPCOMING HIGHLIGHTS

Jesus Christ Superstar

Friday, Nov. 11 - Sunday, Nov. 13 | Corson Auditorium

Jesus Christ: superstar, or misguided spiritual leader? That's the question faced by Judas Iscariot in Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice's hit rock opera. Loosely based on the Gospels, Jesus Christ Superstar offers an in-depth character study of the Bible's biggest hero and greatest villain. Don't miss your chance to see one of Broadway's longest-running shows courtesy of Interlochen Arts Academy's musical theatre students.

Los Hermanos: Documentary Screening and Q&A

Wednesday, Nov. 16 | Corson Auditorium

Politics, music, and family collide in Marcia Jarmel and Ken Schneider's moving documentary, Los Hermanos (The Brothers). Separated for decades by tensions between the United States and Cuba, two brothers—pianist Aldo and violinist Ilmar—reunite for their first collaboration as professional musicians. Featuring Aldo's genre-defying score and performances by Joshua Bell and the Harlem Quartet, Los Hermanos offers a nuanced exploration of estranged nations, fraternal love, and the unifying power of music.

The Nutcracker

Thursday, Dec. 8 - Sunday, Dec. 11 | Corson Auditorium

Experience the magic of a holiday classic as the Interlochen Arts Academy Dance Division stages Piotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky's iconic ballet, The Nutcracker. The timeless story of Clara and her enchanted Nutcracker comes to life through exceptional dancing, breathtaking costumes, dazzling scenic design, and live accompaniment by the Interlochen Arts Academy Orchestra.

Sounds of the Season

Saturday, Dec. 17 and Sunday, Dec. 18 | Corson Auditorium

Don your holiday apparel and join Interlochen Arts Academy for an evening of seasonal songs. The Arts Academy Wind Symphony and Choir lead a family-friendly showcase that feature works by both ensembles, classic stories, and much more. The program concludes with a sing-along of your holiday favorites—led by the man with the bag himself!
