PROGRAM NOTES

Tonight's concert, titled, "Picture in a Frame" is a collection of songs inspired by the work of some of our wonderful visual art students. Interpreting visual art in song can be a powerful way for artists to explore new avenues of creativity and expression. The hope is that this process not only enriches the original artwork by offering a new dimension of interpretation but also creates a transformative experience for the songwriter and the listener, as they travel the line where these disciplines intersect. We are so grateful to Mindy Zacher Ronayne and the VA students for their generosity with their work. Enjoy the show!

Songs inspired by work from:

Yifei Chen, Beijing, China
Kate Denny, Raleigh, N.C.
Brielle Gunderson, Bozeman, Mont.
Juliette Karsten, Traverse City, Mich.
Kyle Lynch, McDonough, Ga.
Milo Lyndon, Longmont, Colo.
Marlene Schwier, Brooklyn, N.Y.
Maisie Ward, Charlottesville, Va.
Jia Zeng, Carmel, Ind.

You can ensure the next promising young artist has the opportunity to come to Interlochen by supporting student scholarships. Make your gift to the Interlochen Annual Fund by visiting www.interlochen.org/giveonline.

Many of our venues are equipped with induction loop systems for the hearing impaired. Please ask one of our ushers if you need assistance connecting to the system. Support for recent upgrades to these systems provided by Michigan Arts and Culture Council; the NEA; Rotary Charities of Traverse City; the Les and Anne Biederman Foundation, Inc.; the Oleson Foundation; and Robert W. Anderson.

In consideration of the performing artists and other patrons, the use of flash photography is not permitted. Federal copyright and licensing rules prohibit the use of video cameras and other recording equipment.

In order to provide a safe and healthy environment, Interlochen maintains a smoke-free and alcohol-free campus. Michigan law prohibits any weapons, including concealed weapons, on Interlochen property because we are an educational campus.

Thank you for your cooperation.
