THEATRE DESIGN AND PRODUCTION SHOWCASE

Theatre Design and Production students in the Theatre Arts program are involved in producing events across campus. This year their work as Designers (Set, Costume, Lights, Sound, Props, and Projections) was seen in Theatre Arts productions of Suzette Who Set to Sea, Dracula, Jesus Christ Superstar, Promenade, Sun In Ya Hands, Electra, The Women of Lockerbie, and An American in Paris. Additionally, the Design and Production students managed and designed the Student Directed One-Act Festival, collaborated with the Dance and Opera Departments, supported Collage, Winterlochen, and Campus Community Meetings! The students have compiled their newest work to share with you. Please engage them all with questions about their work and their process as they have worked exceptionally hard this year! Thank you for your support and we look forward to seeing you in the Harvey One Rehearsal Stage.

Heritage in Sonnet

Before me is heritage. What we make, one spoon of meat to square. My mother can shape wraps into soft boats to drop in pans where grease sizzles small stars on fire. I fake my wraps, as fattened globes, as shaken envelopes I set on paper towels. The fan above whirs softly. Chopsticks chime on pan and slither back and forth in time like snakes to crackling skin. Oil pops. Soy tops. What is hot on tongue is hot down throat. Familiar, yet metal slips on thumb, on dampened swell despite repetitive attempt. My face in pot, in plate between elbows. This, unfamiliar.
These nights I should imagine feasts. I stuff, eat well.
