Interlochen Center for the Arts, a recipient of the National Medal of Arts, is a global arts organization that includes:

- Interlochen Arts Academy - Arts boarding high school with rigorous college-prep academics.
- Interlochen Arts Camp - Summer arts programs for grades 3-12.
- Interlochen College of Creative Arts - Lifelong learning in the arts.
- Interlochen Public Radio - Two stations: Classical music and news (NPR member station).
- Interlochen Presents - Presenting more than 600 events annually featuring students, faculty, and internationally recognized guest artists.
- Interlochen Online - A year-round source of expert online arts education for artists ages seven through adulthood.
- Interlochen Hospitality - A curator of enjoyable on-campus experiences for students, staff, and guests.

Interlochen is the destination for young artists where they transform passion and potential into purpose. Since 1980, 51 Arts Academy students have been named Presidential Scholars—unmatched by any other high school in the country.

Academy students create hundreds of presentations including concerts, performances, exhibitions, readings, and screenings.

More than 562 faculty and staff work to maintain a positive and safe environment for all students. Over 100 guest artists visit each year to bring the professional art world to Academy students.

A 1,200-acre wooded campus provides an inspiring educational environment.

For the 2024-25 school year, nearly $17.5M in financial aid was awarded, and 83% of Academy students received aid.

THEATRE DESIGN AND PRODUCTION SHOWCASE

Theatre Design and Production students in the Theatre Arts program are involved in producing events across campus. This year, their work as Designers (Set, Costume, Lights, Sound, Props) was seen in Theatre Arts productions of The Snow Queen, Present Laughter, Ride the Cyclone, Into the Woods, Lost Girl, The Great MC, Volpone, the Dolly Parton Musical Theatre Showcase, The Shewing-Up of Blanco Posnet and Don Juan in Hell, and Carousel. Additionally, the Design and Production students managed and designed the Student Directed One-Act Festival, collaborated with the Dance and Opera departments, and supported Collage, Winterlochen, and Campus Community Meetings! This year, the students have been working as two collaborative units designing all elements of their dream production of Shakespeare's Macbeth. Please ask them questions about their work and process as they have worked exceptionally hard this year! Thank you for your support, and we look forward to seeing you at the Harvey Stage.

—Stephen John, Director of Design and Production

PROGRAM NOTES

Brave Irene: From the author of Shrek comes a magical winter adventure. When dressmaker Mrs. Bobbin falls ill, her devoted daughter Irene volunteers to deliver a beautiful ball gown to the duchess before her evening party. But as Irene steps into the winter afternoon, a fierce blizzard descends. Battling treacherous winds, deep snow, and her own fears, Irene embarks on an extraordinary journey that will test her courage and determination. This enchanting family-friendly musical brings to life a heartwarming tale of perseverance, featuring mesmerizing movement and original songs that will delight audiences of all ages. A magical adventure that proves even the smallest person can overcome the biggest obstacles.

“What Happens When it Ends”

They will sit around the campfire when all that’s left is smoke. They will master the subject of why they love and why it will never cease. They will forget that walking shoes are worn in the sun. And for a day or two, they will be paralyzed in the light of things the heart cannot forget.

And then remembrance with hesitance. They learn a day can be spent without carrying the price of living with resonance. It says that they were there. It says that he was there, resonant and beloved. And in due time, the trees will canopy again and they will remember that they possess the keys to their wits and the ants bring each other only the sweetness of the grapevine. And then one day soon, they will remember they have walking shoes, each other, sunlight.

—Poem by Rhegan Stallworth

Rhegan Stallworth was raised in Bloomfield Hills, Michigan and now lives in Temecula, California. She has been recognized by the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards and Albion College’s Charles Crupi Memorial Poetry Contest. Her work is forthcoming in The Interlochen Review.

You can ensure the next promising young artist has the opportunity to come to Interlochen by supporting student scholarships. Make your gift to the Interlochen Annual Fund by visiting www.interlochen.org/giveonline.

Many of our venues are equipped with induction loop systems for the hearing impaired. Please ask one of our ushers if you need assistance connecting to the system. Support for recent upgrades to these systems provided by Michigan Arts and Culture Council; the NEA; Rotary Charities of Traverse City; the Les and Anne Biederman Foundation, Inc.; the Oleson Foundation; and Robert W. Anderson.

In consideration of the performing artists and other patrons, the use of flash photography is not permitted. Federal copyright and licensing rules prohibit the use of video cameras and other recording equipment.

In order to provide a safe and healthy environment, Interlochen maintains a smoke-free and alcohol-free campus. Michigan law prohibits any weapons, including concealed weapons, on Interlochen property because we are an educational campus. Thank you for your cooperation.
